Beneath the Spire...

Back in July when I first arrived in Charlotte, and to Trinity, within days I was greeted by a myriad of notes, well wishes, hugs, smiles and beautiful gifts. This church knows how to make someone feel welcome. This church knows how to love one another. One of the first gifts I received came from the Welcoming Ministry Team, a beautiful purple orchid that sits on my desk and many of you have commented on its beauty.

Well, four months into my time serving as your Associate Minister that orchid is still alive and well on my desk. Its bright colors greet me daily and while I am not an expert flower-caregiver, this orchid has managed to survive. Looking at this beautiful orchid, I am reminded of the way Trinity loves, the way it welcomes new faces to its midst. As we prepare for a season of Room in the Inn, I look forward to the ways that our congregation gets to use those wonderful welcoming skills to welcome new people, and to say, “We’re happy you are here” and “Welcome.” And as we prepare for a new group of new members joining us in November, I am excited for them to get to know the welcoming and loving people of Trinity.

Also, as I look at this beautiful orchid that has managed to survive four months with me as the primary caregiver, I am reminded of the season that is to come. As the flowers outside begin to wither and the leaves change to beautiful colors and fall from the trees, I look at this long sustaining orchid on my desk and reflect on the season to come.

We often describe Christmas with descriptions of something new which is blooming and that is by all means accurate. However, I can’t help but be reminded of this long sustaining plant on my desk that is so beautiful and reminds me of the long sustaining love of Christ that is with us in each new season. The beauty of the love of Christ which comes to us each new season, of Christ’s love which greets us in the loving faces of the congregation of Trinity saying “Welcome” and “We are glad you are here,” as we open the doors to the sanctuary and greet folks on Sunday morning, as we say welcome to Room in the Inn guests, as we greet new faces at fellowship events and during the Christmas season.

In Christ,

Grace

Session Highlights

Stated Session Meeting on October 25, 2015:

Review of Communications Ministry Team Documents: Cookie Parnell reviewed the recently formulated “Publicity Guidelines” and “Event/Program Publicity Request Form” documents created by the Communications Ministry Team and requested that all members comply with the requirements necessary to initiate and request actions for future programs and events.

Hayden McMahon, on behalf of the Buildings & Grounds Ministry Team, gave an update on items that have been accomplished during the past several months:

- Pothole repair is on hold because of Capital Campaign improvements;
- Dumpster relocation – will be inside a brick enclosure with steel doors, with landscaping;
- Church has leaks and peeling paint
- Storm drains and French drains are clogged and will be inspected by a TV camera;
- Steve’s office wall flooded from gutters overflowing;
- Ceilings in WDS: the rooms in the L-shaped building needed repairs – children helped clean baseboards and Philips Academy students also helped;
- Replacement of sinks, water fountains, commodes, etc. was accomplished;
- Replaced outside lighting with low voltage bulbs and replaced some defective switches;
- Roof repairs are completed. Replaced missing slate and fixed while working on the steeple;
- Parlor doors were repaired;
- Room in the Inn shower was replaced before RITI begins in December;
- Door mats were replaced at a savings of $5,100 yearly rental. Mats were purchased for $2,700;
- Light switches, etc., have been replaced;
- Funds for many of these repairs came from the memorial fund.
- Bill Jones can do SO many things and has been a real asset to B&G - Thank you Bill.

Stated Session Meeting on November 15, 2015:

A motion was made, seconded and approved to change the membership status of Jane Bostian Arant from Active to Affiliate in accordance with her request.

The Finance Ministry Team motioned and Session approved to grant the Financial Administrator, Cheryl Jernigan, the authority to open two mutual fund accounts with New Covenant Funds in order to receive funds from Claude and Louise Sanford. The funds will be coming from the memorial fund and a special gift from Louise Sanford. This special gift is a gift for which Claude Sanford specifically planned as a legacy gift to Trinity Presbyterian Church. The funds will be used to establish an account whose sole purpose is for physical plant maintenance and repair. The specific language and policy statement is still being developed. This request is to solely open up the account in order to prepare for the ultimate receipt of the funds.

The Finance Ministry Team motioned and Session approved to add the following individuals as additional authorized check signers for the Trinity Presbyterian Church account at Wells Fargo Bank: Laura Gutknecht, Carolyn Heuerman and Kathleen Schneider.

The Jane B. Arant Discussion Group will be taking up new material for the New Year, so January is a great time for new members to join the group. We meet every Thursday morning, 10:00 - 12:00, for stimulating discussion triggered by our current reading. Reading the material ahead is encouraged but certainly not required - so this is a very user-friendly group.

During the month of January we will take up a short study of the book of Genesis, Chapters 1-3 (the creation stories), with an emphasis on learning how modern scholarship helps us to understand the Bible. Then, for the rest of the winter/spring semester we will turn to the latest book by Bishop John Spong, The Fourth Gospel: Tales of a Jewish Mystic. We will place a book order in January (paperback, $13.50). The first class of the year is January 7 - hope to see you then!

IMPACT STORY - May Johnston

Congregation members share an “Impact Story” during the worship service at least monthly. Please find below May Johnston’s story shared May 17, 2015.

I don't remember a time when Trinity Presbyterian Church was NOT a part of my life... I was actually walking these halls, serving on committees, and worshiping here before I was even breathing, because – and I'm getting ready to date myself here – I was the “twinkle in my father's eye” or, as they used to say, “the bun in the oven” when my mother was serving as Chair of the Pastor Nominating Committee in 1962 that called our second senior minister, Dr. H. Louis Patrick, to Trinity.

I have so many memories of my childhood intertwined with Trinity that it's hard to narrow it down. My earliest memories are of the weekday school and “Miss Goldie” (that would be Goldie Stribling) who was my Kindergarten teacher, the swings on the playground– my favorite! – just as they are for my daughter today; singing in the choir and actually believing I was an angel in that white robe; Jr. & Sr. High Youth Group; Montreat – from Trinity's very first sojourn there when I was about 10 or 11 and every year after that until I went to college; my father teaching me to drive in the front parking lot. There were five kids in my family and we pretty much filled that third pew over there on Sunday mornings. I was so fortunate; I had an idyllic childhood and Trinity was a huge part of it.

Fast forward to the present. You grow up. Life happens, things change - some good, some bad. I seemed to have a run of “bad change” from age 23 to 33. When most young people that age are spreading their wings, forging their own lives and beginning their own families, I was losing family members at a pretty fast clip; first my father when I was 23, then my brother 5 years later, and then my mother 5 years after that. My other siblings, while I'm close to them, had moved away and each had families of their own. I will admit there were some sad, dark times for me.

But it was here at Trinity, with these people – “my people” - that I felt known and loved, and felt the arms of my Trinity family wrapped around me, giving me strength and the faith to believe that God would lead the way. And I believe it was my Trinity family, and all those Trinity saints and their examples of love and faith over the years that gave me the courage eight years ago to jump out in faith - me, who has always craved security and tradition, and “playing it safe” – to jump out in faith and make one of the best decisions I have ever made– the decision to adopt my precious, silly, beautiful, loving daughter and child of God sitting over there – Madeleine Virginia Liwei Johnston.

As for Trinity's future, I am so excited and filled with hope. I have seen the past and the many saints who invested so much of themselves to create this amazing community of believers. I have seen struggle and difficult times, but it's made us stronger, and I truly believe the best is yet to come. The energy is palpable and there seems to be a common desire across all age groups for Trinity to be a significant force for good beyond these walls, to seek ways that we can give the Bread of Heaven to others who need examples of love and faith in their lives, so they can feel our arms and God's love wrapped around them - which is really what it's all about, isn't it?

Thank you for this chance to express my love and gratitude for Trinity Presbyterian Church and her people – here's to Trinity: the past, the present, and most of all, what's yet to come.

Great news!! Trinity's Friendship Garden donated 517.65 pounds of produce to Friendship Trays!! And the growing season isn't over!

For the first time we've planted fall crops (collards and kale) and they are showing great promise. The okra plants were pulled up last week so things are gearing down for the cold weather in the garden.

Thank you ALL for your help in achieving this record-busting amount of donated produce! We have increased our donations each of the four years we've existed! Last year we donated 338 pounds.

Room in the Inn

Room in the Inn season (RITI) is upon us and Trinity will once again open its doors and welcome 144 guests. The winter months are some of the hardest for Charlotte's homeless population. Through the help of many volunteers, we at Trinity are able to provide our guests three meals (dinner, breakfast, and a bag lunch), a hot shower, clean socks, hats, gloves, t-shirts and underwear, fellowship and a warm and safe place to rest for the night.

We have volunteer opportunities in the following areas: transportation, overnight hosts, breakfast, lunches, and laundry pick up and drop off. In addition to our usual volunteer opportunities, please contact Tricia Sistrunk if you or your family or group (youth group, girl scouts, choir, bible study...) would like to join us for dinner on RITI Wednesdays. This is a great opportunity to learn more about and help support this important ministry at Trinity.

Our nights to host are: December 2, 9, and 16, January 6, 20, and 27, February 3, 10, and 24, March 2, 16, and 30. Please consider your interests and contact one of the team leaders listed below:

Be on the lookout for our Alternative Gift cards, which can be found along with the RITI display boards in the Cloister. This is a great gift idea during the holidays and your financial support helps purchase the supplies needed to keep the RITI program running at Trinity.

“GIFTS TO THE MANGER”

The Mission and Outreach Ministry Team is focusing once again this Advent season on several organizations and programs that have specific needs during Christmas. The following five opportunities for giving will be familiar since you have been so gracious and generous in previous years. We hope you and your family will share in the joy of bringing “Gifts to the Manger”. Please place your new and unwrapped gifts in the designated display boxes in the Cloister.

Alexander Youth Network -

Each year, Alexander serves over 5,700 children with, or at high risk of, serious emotional and behavioral problems often induced by neglect or abuse. A majority of the “kids of Alexander” come from low-income homes, some are separated from their natural families, and many live in the care of therapeutic foster parents. Alexander’s Angel Network provides Trinity with a way to make these children’s holiday special. All items should be new, unwrapped and delivered to collection boxes in the Cloister, with card attached. Deadline for donations is December 7.

Needs: Look in the Cloister for a small tree with card ornaments carrying a specific request from a child. General donations are also welcome.

Thompson Child & Family Focus - Wish List -

Thompson provides dormitories and group housing for children that are displaced from home due to abuse and mental problems within their families. Trinity’s congregation brings love and joy to these children by donating one gift for each child. Please bring your gift to the office by December 10. Please note: do not wrap gift and tape the card to the package.

Needs: There will be a board in the Cloister with display cards describing specific items/gifts.

Emergency Winter Shelter - provides winter shelter, food, and referrals to various social services in the Charlotte area.

Needs: Men's underwear, socks, warm coats, sweaters, gloves, blankets, pillows, towels, and washcloths.

“Therefore, as God’s chosen people, holy and dearly loved, clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness and patience.”
Colossians 3:12

Room in the Inn – Trinity is one of many churches that provide on-site shelter for the homeless during the winter months. Provisions for food, shelter, simple toiletries and basic clothing such as socks, underwear, hats and gloves are given to approximately 100 men and women (our neighbors) each season.

Needs: Alternative Christmas Gift Cards will be available at the Room in the Inn display in the Cloister. Make a donation in someone’s honor or memory to this important ministry at Trinity and give them a gift they won’t forget!

Christmas Joy Offering – A Presbyterian

tradition for almost seventy years, providing congregations direct ways of supporting specific causes that help those in need. Fifty percent (50%) of the Christmas Joy Offering is distributed to the Board of Pensions for assistance programs that provide support to retired and active church workers, their spouses and families. The other 50% supports Presbyterian-related racial ethnic education through the National Ministries Division of the General Assembly Council.

Needs: Joy Offering envelopes will be available in the pew racks and in the Cloister.

Thank you in advance for your generosity and supporting this Trinity ministry year after year.
